Larry Carbo to Head Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Labor and Employment Practice in Houston

Houston, June 1, 2016 – National law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka today announced that Larry Carbo, shareholder, will head the firm's Labor and Employment Practice in Houston.

"We are excited for Larry to lead the firm's Labor and Employment Practice," said Wayne Risoli, managing shareholder of Chamberlain Hrdlicka. "With his extensive labor and employment litigation experience, he is well-positioned to contribute to our firm's continued growth in this area."

Carbo has more than 15 years of in-depth experience in labor and employment matters, including misappropriation of trade secrets, enforcement and defense of non-competition agreements and breaches of fiduciary duty. On the federal level he is the lead counsel on a number of large, significant Fair Labor Standards Act collective actions, and represents clients in proceedings before the National Labor Relations Board and the National Football League Players Association. He also routinely represents closely held companies involving significant matters including breach of contract, executive compensation, shareholder oppression, fraud and breach of fiduciary duty.

A graduate of the Louisiana State University and the Loyola University School of Law, Carbo has been named a Texas Rising Star by Texas Monthly in 2009 and 2010 and a Lawyer on the Fast Track by H Texas Magazine in 2009. He is a member of the Houston Bar Association, the Houston Young Lawyers Association and the American Bar Association.
