Chamberlain Hrdlicka Enhances Firm and Individual Chambers Rankings

Houston, May 8, 2018 – For the 11th consecutive year Chambers & Partners ranked national law firm Chamberlain Hrdlicka among the top tax law firms in the United States on both state and national levels. The firm maintained its Band 3 ranking in the Tax Controversy category, placing Chamberlain Hrdlicka among top ten US tax controversy firms. In total, seven attorneys from the firm’s Houston, Atlanta and Philadelphia offices achieved individual state and national rankings in the areas of tax, tax controversy, tax litigation, tax fraud, and immigration.

“Seeing our attorneys repeatedly honored for their professional accomplishments and the quality of service they provide to our clients is incredibly gratifying,” said Wayne Risoli, managing shareholder, Chamberlain Hrdlicka. “The continued, expanding ranking by Chambers & Partners demonstrates the deep expertise our firm has in complex tax matters and other areas of law, allowing us to provide the highest level of service and the personal attention to our clients.”

Several recognized attorneys received Chambers’ top honors. David D. Aughtry, a shareholder in the Atlanta office, was named a Star Individual seventh year in a row. Larry Campagna, a shareholder at Chamberlain Hrdlicka’s Houston office, was ranked again as a top tier attorney in Tax Fraud and Tax, while Peter Williamson, also in the Houston office, maintained his status of a Senior Statesman in Immigration law. Joining the ranks of Chambers-recognized attorneys, Stewart Weintraub, SALT Practice Chair and shareholder in the Philadelphia office, was recognized in Tax category.

Sources interviewed by Chambers praised Chamberlain Hrdlicka’s tax attorneys for their great knowledge of the tax law and the ability to make cogent arguments, being imaginative, thoughtful, creative, and relentless in terms of their advocacy and more.

Published by Chamber & Partners, Chambers USA compiles an annual list of the nation’s top attorneys according to practice area. The directory identifies and ranks leading firms and attorneys based on interviews conducted by researchers with clients and lawyers worldwide.
