In an article published on August 1, 2022, Law360 includes Chamberlain Hrdlicka Atlanta-based Shareholder Scot Kirkpatrick’s insight in a roundup of attorneys cautioning against using online platforms for estate planning needs and who are troubled by the do-it-yourself nature of these platforms.

“The problem with any do-it-yourself project is that while the tool may be the right fit for the job, the operator may not have the knowledge, the experience or the wisdom to use the tool correctly,” explains Kirkpatrick.

The article further explains the potential risks involved with using these platforms and outlines how they haven’t impacted individuals still seeking advice from law firms specializing in estate planning.
