“Fraud Trial Shows Challenge in Choosing a Criminal Tax Jury”

Kevin Sweeney quoted in Bloomberg Tax article

November 1, 2022

In an article published in Bloomberg Tax on October 28, 2022, Philadelphia-based Shareholder Kevin Sweeney provides insight on the Trump Organization’s criminal tax fraud trial.

“A complex tax system is one of many considerations; potential jurors may come into the case with complicated experiences and views of the IRS and the U.S. tax system,” Sweeney explains. “For example, although jurors may view the IRS negatively and loathe reporting and paying taxes, that doesn’t necessarily mean they will sympathize with a defendant who didn’t report all income or pay all taxes when they had to do those things themselves.”
