In an article published by Law360 Pulse on February 8, 2023, Chamberlain Hrdlicka's 10 shareholder elevations were announced with six roles in Atlanta and four in Texas, making this the largest class of shareholder promotions. The promotions were confirmed at the firm's annual shareholders' meeting in Houston on February 4, 2023.

The article highlights the new equity shareholders Atlanta-based lawyers Jennifer Duval Lindy, Jeffrey S. Luechtefeld and Robert Jeffrey Waddell, and Houston-based Julie R. Offerman. It also highlights the firm's newest shareholders Atlanta-based Cassandra S. Bradford, Jasen Hanson and Stephen C. Heymann, Houston attorneys Jack Najarian and Michael B. Overstreet, and San Antonio's Leo Unzeitig.

“We'd like to congratulate all of these attorneys on their outstanding performances and their new stature in our shareholder ranks,” Larry Campagna, Chamberlain Hrdlicka's managing shareholder, said in a statement. “These 10 attorneys have significantly contributed to the firm's success through their hard work and dedication to providing great client service. This large class of excellent lawyers and leaders is a testament to the firm's continued growth, and we look forward to seeing what else they will accomplish for the firm, their communities and our industry.”
