Chamberlain Hrdlicka Tops Houston Business Journal's 2023 Largest Houston-area Tax and Finance Law Firms List and Makes the List for Bankruptcy, Corporate, and Labor & Employment Law

Houston Business Journal lists Chamberlain Hrdlicka as 2023 Largest Houston-area Tax and Finance Law Firm

July 17, 2023

The Houston Business Journal (HBJ) named Chamberlain Hrdlicka as the largest tax and finance law firm in Houston on its 2023 Largest Tax and Finance Law Firms list. The firm was also named to the Largest Bankruptcy Law, Corporate Law, and Labor & Employment Law Firms lists. The firm made the top 15 law firms in Houston in both HBJ's 2022 Largest Houston Law Firms List and Houston Chronicle's 2022 Chronicle 100: Houston's Top Law Firms – the most recent rankings to date.

Chamberlain Hrdlicka is recognized nationally as one of the top tax law firms in the nation, a reputation affirmed by well-respected rankings such as Chambers & Partners, Legal 500, ITR/World Tax, Best Lawyers in America, Best Law Firms in America, and Texas SuperLawyers. Nearly half of the firm's Houston attorneys practice tax law, including tax planning and business transactions, tax controversy & litigation, state and local tax controversy & planning, international tax, criminal tax defense, and estate & income tax planning.

Despite a highly competitive legal job market in Houston and nationwide, the firm has been able to attract outstanding attorneys, thanks to its entrepreneurial culture that provides a unique platform allowing ambitious attorneys to quickly develop their practices with the guidance of experienced mentors. To accommodate its continued growth, create a collaborative and functional space for the way law firms work today, and elevate all employees' experiences, the firm's Houston office is currently undergoing strategic renovations. The approximately $6 million office improvements will include new community amenities and bring more natural light throughout the office space.
