Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Houston-based team, led Habeeb 'Hobbs' Gnaim, practice chair of the firm's Tax Planning & Business Transactions Group, and David Pierson, represented ZT Corporate in its acquisition of Exceptional Emergency Center, a community based provider of freestanding emergency centers operating 14 locations across Texas. Adding to ZT Corporate's existing healthcare portfolio, the acquisition makes Altus Community Healthcare, ZT's portfolio company, the largest operator of freestanding emergency centers in Texas with 30 locations throughout the state.

The transaction was supported by Aly Dossa (Intellectual Property), Christopher Hydrick (Corporate) and Arlin Dawson (Corporate).

ZT Corporate, a private equity firm that specializes in healthcare and automotive investments, is a long-time client of Gnaim. Discussing the transaction, Taseer Badar, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of ZT Corporate, said, "Exceptional Emergency Center is an excellent addition to our portfolio and a major step for us in becoming the largest freestanding emergency room operator in Texas. We are proud to broaden our reach in new communities and enhance areas we serve. With our expanded resources and economies of scale, ZT Corporate is ready to take an even larger role in driving momentum for innovation and growth within the healthcare sector."
