Chamberlain Hrdlicka Promotes Jennifer Weidler Karpchuk to Senior Counsel

Attorney in the Philadelphia office focuses her practice on State and Local Taxation (SALT)

PHILADELPHIA (June 2017) – The national law firm Chamberlain, Hrdlicka, White, Williams & Aughtry is pleased to announce that Jennifer Weidler Karpchuk has been promoted to Senior Counsel.

Karpchuk, who has been named a Pennsylvania Rising Star for high-achieving young attorneys in both 2016 and 2017, has continually excelled in her time with Chamberlain Hrdlicka.

“Jennifer has been a tremendous asset to the firm and to our clients,” said Chamberlain Hrdlicka SALT Practice Chair Stewart Weintraub. “Her professionalism, knowledge and ability to relate to her clients are just a few of her strengths. She has earned her promotion through hard work and a consistent desire to hone her legal skills every day.”

Karpchuk represents clients in various matters related to state and local taxation. Her clients include those challenging audit determinations and real estate assessment decisions, seeking refunds from state and local governments, handling administrative appeals, litigating unresolved disputes in state and local courts, and handling post-trial appeals.

Karpchuk is a co-author of the Pennsylvania Tax Handbook, as well as the Pennsylvania chapter of the American Bar Association Tax Section State and Local Tax Committee Property Tax Deskbook. She is a frequent contributor to the firm’s SALT blog, as well as State Tax Notes.

She received her bachelor’s from the University of Delaware and her Juris Doctor from Temple University School of Law.
