Chamberlain Hrdlicka Adds John Meredith as COO

Atlanta Citybizlist

June 21, 2017

In an article published by Atlanta Citybizlist on June 21, 2017, Chamberlain Hrdlicka announces the arrival of John Meredith to the firm as its new Chief Operating Officer.

This is a new position that was created by the firm to manage its growth nationwide. Meredith brings more than 30 years of experience as a general counsel and executive director of several law firms and nonprofit organizations.

In his new role at Chamberlain Hrdlicka, he will manage more than 245 employees in the firm's offices in Houston, Atlanta, Philadelphia and San Antonio. He will also oversee the strategic planning and budget management for the firm, as well as the business development, facilities and human resources management, recruitment and diversity, professional development, pro bono and other important initiatives.
