"Could coronavirus make remote work the new norm at Philly law firms?"

Philadelphia Business Journal

March 17, 2020

In an article published on March 17, 2020 in the Philadelphia Business Journal, Chamberlain Hrdlicka shareholder Stewart Weintraub discusses how the coronavirus could make remote work the new normal at Philadelphia law firms.

“Law firms are among the largest contributors to tax revenue in the city. There are roughly 13,000 lawyers practicing in Philadelphia,” explains Weintraub. “If half chose to work outside Philadelphia, it would not only impact the city’s tax revenue but also businesses such as restaurants and retailers.”
