Matthew Stirneman joins Chamberlain Hrdlicka's
Houston Office as a Senior Counsel in the Corporate, Securities & Finance Practice

April 15, 2021

Matthew Stirneman recently joined the Houston office of the national law firm, Chamberlain Hrdlicka, as senior counsel in the Corporate, Securities & Finance practice.

At Chamberlain Hrdlicka, Stirneman will focus on corporate finance, securities, real estate, energy, and other general business matters, including representing borrowers, financial institutions, private equity firms, and others in structuring, negotiating and documenting financing transactions. He also has experience handling a broad range of business transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, dispositions, and related corporate matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Stirneman was an attorney at a large law firm in Houston, where he represented lead agents, lenders, private equity firms and borrowers in various industries in connection with a broad range of secured and unsecured bilateral and syndicated financing transactions including asset-based facilities, reserved based facilities, project financings, debtor-in-possession financings, letters of credit, and hedging transactions.

Stirneman graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing and earned an MBA from Texas A&M University. He obtained his law degree from South Texas College of Law. He is an active member of the American Bar Association, the Houston Bar Association, the Houston Young Lawyers Association as well as the State Bar of Texas: Oil, Gas and Energy Resource Law Section.
