Diana Gomez is a talented trial attorney with extensive experience in civil lawsuits in state and federal courts. She focuses on complex labor and employment disputes by providing a full range of employment law services to her clients from pre-termination counseling, investigations, EEO training, handbook review, drafting of policies and employment agreements, non-competes, defense in administrative proceedings (EEOC charges, unemployment hearings) and arbitrations as well as all aspects of trial from pre-suit through appeal. Diana has successfully defended all types of employment law matters in state and federal court including claims involving non-competes, discrimination, retaliation, FLSA, and ERISA.

In addition to being the National Co-Chair for the Labor & Employment practice, Diana serves as the National Chair for the firm's Pro Bono Committee. She also serves on the firm's Board of Directors.

Diana is honored to be the President of the Houston Bar Association, which was established in 1870 and is one of the largest volunteer bars in the country with over 10,000 members. Diana is the first Latina president of the 153 year old organization.

Diana was featured in the Texas Lawyer after being recognized as one of "Houston's 50 Most Influential Women of 2020-2021" for her legal expertise, knowledge, credibility, and trustworthiness. She was also a featured conversationalist during the 25th Annual Table Talk Luncheon hosted by the University of Houston. Diana was also included in the 2022 Houston Business Journal's Women Who Mean Business as an Outstanding Leader in Law. Most recently Diana was selected by D-Mars Business Journal for the award of 2023 Top 30 Influential Women of Houston.

Diana serves on the Board of Directors for the Houston Zoo Development Corporation and the Hispanic Bar Association of Houston. Diana is also a co-chair for District Four of the Texas Bar Foundation.

Diana has been named by U.S. News as one of the "Best Lawyers in America 2022" and has been named to the Texas Super Lawyers List consecutively every year since
