

Practice Areas

- Tax
- Tax Controversy & Litigation

Education

- Stetson University, B.A. Business Administration, Minor in Finance, 2018; Honors: cum laude, Roland George Investments Program
- Stetson University College of Law, J.D./M.B.A. with a Concentration in Business Law, 2021; Honors: cum laude, Stetson Law Review Notes & Comments Editor, Moot Court Tax Team
- University of Florida Levin College of Law, LL.M. in Taxation, 2022

Honors

- Artillery Order of Molly Pitcher for distinguished volunteer service as Family Readiness Coordinator to the Florida Army National Guard, 2nd Bn 116th FAR, United States Field Artillery Association.

John M. Bartel

Associate

Atlanta

191 Peachtree Street, N.E., Forty-Sixth Floor
Atlanta, Georgia 30303
Tel: 404.659.1410
Fax: 404.659.1852
John.Bartel@chamberlainlaw.com
www.chamberlainlaw.com

John Bartel is an associate attorney in the Tax Controversy and Litigation section of Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Atlanta office. While in law school, John gained experience working in a variety of environments, including a boutique business law firm, the United States Bankruptcy Court of the Middle District of Florida, Sykes Enterprises, Inc., and Citigroup Inc. John's experience and business intensive education help him understand the needs of his clients.

- E. Harris Drew Memorial Award for dedication to the law and an ability to express thoughts orally and in writing, Stetson University College of Law.

Bar Admissions

- Florida

John M. Bartel, Continued

