Private Funds

Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Corporate, Securities & Finance practice group includes a team of attorneys who are well-versed in all legal and regulatory matters relevant to managing and investing in private funds. Our experience across many private fund structures, including private investment funds, hedge funds and private equity funds, enables us to assist clients in a wide scope of fund investment activities.

We help our clients move forward with private fund activities, employing a cross-disciplinary approach that incorporates the firm's greater Corporate, Securities & Finance practice, along with other relevant practice areas including tax and tax planning. At any juncture in private fund operations, from fund formation to ongoing fund management, our team can navigate the legal, regulatory and compliance and governance matters, advancing for our clients the diverse objectives of both fund sponsors and investors.
