Internal Investigations

Internal Investigations

Corporations, non-profit organizations, and public institutions, large and small, encounter scrutiny from federal, state, and local government agencies, which are less and less tolerant of regulatory mistakes. In addition, businesses face increased litigation initiated by private parties. Businesses should conduct their own internal investigations to quickly and efficiently evaluate each factual situation and determine the most effective response.

Chamberlain Hrdlicka's internal investigation lawyers investigate allegations of wrongdoing on behalf of public and private companies and institutions, corporate committees, audit committees, and individual officers and directors throughout the world. Our internal investigation team provides comprehensive assessments of criminal and civil exposure and provides strategic counsel regarding each clients' options.

The internal investigation team consists of attorneys who have served in the U.S. Department of Justice, as state prosecutors and public defenders, as well as experienced corporate advisors, Title IX investigators, and litigators. They are well-positioned to investigate a wide array of subject matters.

White Collar and Regulatory Investigations

A leading tax firm in the U.S., Chamberlain Hrdlicka possesses the talent and resources necessary to thoroughly investigate any tax, financial, or white-collar matter. Our objective is to conduct an internal investigation to deliver strategic advice concerning any possible misconduct within a corporation with minimal disruption to business.

Title IX Investigations

Our Title IX attorneys are experienced, independent investigators in matters relating to sexual or gender-based harassment, sexual assault, and interpersonal violence, involving students and employees at colleges and universities. In fact, our Title IX attorneys contribute to the media as the Title IX regulations evolve.

We are committed to ensuring that Title IX investigations on campus are handled professionally and thoroughly. As independent investigators, our attorneys conduct comprehensive and impartial interviews, gather evidence, and issue findings, while respecting the sensitivity of each individual case and ensuring compliance with Title IX legislation.

Chamberlain Hrdlicka's legal investigators are trained to remain consistently fair and nonjudgmental throughout an investigation, while equipping campus administration with the information necessary to implement and maintain an appropriate response to the case in question. We abide by the most up-to-date procedures for colleges and universities regarding Title IX compliance, as specified by the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Civil Rights (OCR).
