

Foster Swift Elects Seven New Shareholders

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 18, 2017

LANSING - The law firm of Foster Swift Collins & Smith, P.C. is pleased to announce Alicia Birach, Lauren Dunn, Adam Fadly, Anna Gibson, Barbra Homier, Nicholas Oertel and Patricia Scott as the newly elected shareholders of the firm.

Alicia Birach, of the Southfield office, is a member of the Workers' Compensation practice group. Birach received her juris doctorate from Wayne State University Law School, where she won the Arthur Neef Competition argued before the Michigan Supreme Court. Birach was also named a Michigan Super Lawyers "Rising Star" in 2016.

Lauren Dunn provides employee benefits counsel for public and private employers out of the Lansing office. Dunn graduated from Wayne State University Law School. She also advises and drafts various healthcare reform plans, including medical reimbursement and nondiscrimination testing and serves on Impression 5 Science Center Board of Directors.

Adam Fadly, of the Southfield office, is a member of the litigation practice group and focuses on first and third party no-fault matters. At the Michigan State University College of Law, Fadly led the Moot Court and Trial Advocacy Board and was editor-in-chief of the Journal of Entertainment & Sports Law. Fadly was also named a Michigan Super Lawyers "Rising Star."

Anna Gibson is a member of the Trusts and Estates practice group in Foster Swift's Lansing office. She graduated first in her class at Ave Maria Law School. Gibson is on the Board of Directors for Elder Law of Michigan and is active in the Greater Lansing Estate Planning Council. She has been named in Best Lawyers in America since 2013.

Barbra Homier, of the Grand Rapids office, practices exclusively in family law. A graduate of Michigan State University College of Law, Homier is also affiliated with the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan and International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. She also earned the AV® Preeminent™ rating from Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory.

ATTORNEYS

Alicia W. Birach

Adam A. Fadly

Anna K. Gibson

Nicholas M. Oertel

Nicholas Oertel practices business and securities law in the Lansing office and leads the firm's Startup Entrepreneurial Emerging Development (S.E.E.D) Group. A graduate of Michigan State University College of Law, he serves on the Ronald McDonald House of Mid-Michigan Board of Directors and was listed in the Ingham County Bar Association's 2016 "Top 5 Under 35."

Patricia Scott is based in the Lansing office and concentrates her practice in bankruptcy, finance, collections, and real estate. The Thomas M. Cooley Law School graduate is listed as a Michigan Super Lawyers "Rising Star," 2016, and is on the Board of Directors for Small Talk Children's Assessment Center and Junior League of Lansing.
