

Municipal Attorney Joins Dapper Dads

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 24, 2019

Lansing

LANSING, Mich. –Foster Swift municipal attorney Mark T. Koerner is among more than 40 business leaders competing in the 10th annual Dapper Dads challenge. Hosted by the Sparrow Foundation and the Women Working Wonders committee, Dapper Dads is an online voting campaign in which the public purchases votes for their favorite candidates. Each vote costs five dollars and the proceeds go towards the Foundation and their efforts to improve the health and well-being of thousands of mid-Michigan women.

The campaign concludes with a charity fashion show event on Thursday, June 6 where the top voted men hit the runway.

Online voting closes at 5:00 p.m. on June 5; however any final votes may be cast in person at the fashion show. The event begins at 5:30 p.m. in front of Kositchek's, located on Washington Square in Lansing. 2018's Dapper Dads campaign raised nearly $1,000,000!

Mark practices from the firm's Lansing office and assists municipal entities primarily in the areas of transit law, drain law, labor & employment law issues and technology law.

To cast votes for your favorite Dapper Dad or to buy tickets to the fashion show, visit SparrowFoundation.org/DapperDads.
