

Littleton Elected James E. Hunter Association President

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 15, 2022

SOUTHFIELD, Mich. —Foster Swift litigation attorney, Ray H. Littleton, has been unanimously elected to serve as President on the Board of Directors for the James E. Hunter Association. The following other Board Members were also elected to Board positions:

1. James Smith, Vice President
2. Pat Clemons, Secretary
3. Pat Phillips, Treasurer
4. Brandon Scott, Asst. Secretary
5. Jeanne Franklin, Asst. Treasurer

Named in honor of the former Detroit Lions football player and philanthropist, the mission of the James E. Hunter Association, a Southeast Michigan nonprofit, is to award scholarships to local high school students and to provide need-based educational grants for the local community through contributions and donations.

The vision of the association is to assist youth in obtaining educational excellence and cultivate them into responsible leaders for the community.

A former football player himself at Yale University, Littleton's practice area consists of commercial and general litigation and health care law. He helps businesses and organizations address a wide-range of litigation matters and disputes, specializing in four key areas: Insurance, Health Care, Transportation and Warranty Claims.
