SOUTHFIELD, Mich. —Experienced litigator and trial attorney, Dora A. Brantley, has joined Foster Swift Collins & Smith. She splits her time between the firm's Detroit and Southfield offices. As lead counsel, Dora has successfully defended professional liability claims and claims brought against:

- Restaurants and hospitality companies
- Manufacturers, transportation carriers and drivers
- Employers
- Landlords and homeowners
- Small business owners and,
- Governmental entities and their employees.

Dora has the honor of being the only attorney who has been selected by two Fortune 500 fast food corporations to defend claims and litigation involving a variety of issues, including tort liability and alleged civil rights violations. She is also one of only two attorneys who have been selected by a Fortune 500 hospitality corporation to defend tort and civil rights claims and litigation brought against them.

She is often engaged by employers to investigate and provide direction regarding claims of discrimination and harassment, as well as insurance carriers to resolve coverage disputes.

Dora earned her B.A. from the University of Michigan prior to attending Wayne State University Law School where she received her Juris Doctor.
