MSU Law Student Estella Riahi (3L) was chosen for the Carolyn Stell Memorial Scholarship from the Mid-Michigan chapter of the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan (WLAM). The Memorial Scholarship was established to enable a deserving law school student “to apply, study for, and pass the Michigan Bar Examination and gain admission to the State Bar of Michigan.”

Riahi was presented with the award during the WLAM Stell Dinner winter event. She was joined by Assistant Director of Career Development Kristina Bilowus and WLAM mentor Jacquelyn Dupler ('12), an attorney with Foster Swift.
