Deanna serves as the Firm's General Counsel, while continuing to serve Firm clients. Her practice focuses on contract formation, commercial litigation, real estate litigation and arbitration. She is a member of AAA's Commercial Panel of arbitrators and also serves as a party advocate in arbitration and other forms of alternative dispute resolution.

Her work as a commercial litigator has earned the respect of her peers, as is demonstrated by her AV® Preeminent™ Martindale-Hubbell rating and Best Lawyers® in America recognition in Commercial Litigation since 2009. In addition to breach of contract matters, she enforces the rights of parties to secured transactions, files and defends actions for conversion, breach of fiduciary duty, tortious interference and other business torts. She has successfully enjoined violations of covenants not-to-compete and enforced sales commission agreements.

Deanna handles a broad range of real estate litigation including easement disputes, adverse possession, boundary and title disputes. She works closely with members of her practice group, the firm's Banking, Finance and Real Estate Practice Group, and also participates in the Firm's Agricultural Law Group.

Deanna drafts and negotiates a wide variety of contracts including SaaS, electronic monitoring, terms of sale, open account applications, licensing agreements, commission agreements, non-compete covenants, employment agreements and independent contractor agreements.

Admitted to practice in Michigan and Texas, she is a member of the Federal Bar Association, the American Bar Association, the State Bar Associations of Michigan and Texas, and the Ingham County Bar Association. Deanna is a member of the Fellows of the Michigan State Bar Foundation, and she is a former member of the State Bar of
