Rekela Wilson is a paralegal in the firm's Southfield office with the General and Commercial Litigation Practice Group, where her primary focus is on asbestos mass tort defense.

Rekela joined the firm in 2000 and has served in multiple roles including Administrative Assistant and Legal Secretary. Assisting attorneys on mainly general and commercial litigation matters, Rekela gained experience in trial prep, organizing legal pleadings, and maintaining records. Her dependability and working knowledge prepared her to be an effective paralegal.

Rekela graduated from Henry Ford College in Dearborn, Michigan with her degree in Paralegal Studies.
